

Dr Penny McNamara
MBBS (Lond), MRCGP, MA Ethics (Keele)
Consultant in Palliative Medicine

Dr Penny McNamara trained in South Thames before transferring into the Anglia region. Her interests include medical ethics, teaching and training. She is currently the programme director for palliative medicine in the eastern region.

Outpatients are seen at St Johns Hospice and domiciliary visits made on request, usually with 2- 3days, or within 10 days if less urgent.