

Mr Timothy Hoare
MA, MB, BChir, FRCS, FRCS(ORL)
Consultant ENT Surgeon

Mr Timothy Hoare was appointed as a consultant ear, nose, throat, head and neck surgeon at Bedford Hospital in 1996 after seven years specialist training in Birmingham and the West Midlands. His initial basic surgical training in related areas including neurosurgery, plastic, orthopaedic and general surgery was in London after qualifying as a doctor from Cambridge University and the Middlesex Hospital.

At Bedford he has maintained his specialist interest in children's ENT surgery, specialist ear surgery and thyroid surgery, and has also developed specialised joint clinics with his ophthalmological colleagues for watery eyes, and with his speech therapy colleagues for voice disorders.
