

Soft collars

These are not provided through orthotic services.

Hard collars (for more rigid support)

Patients will be provided with one collar. Where a patient has a chronic disease and a long term need, they may be supplied with a second one for repair purposes and to help prolong the life of the collar.